RTIPPA File No. 2012.017b

Dear Mr. McHardie:

Re: RTIPPA Request Salary & Expenses, President of UNB

Thank you for your interest in the University of New Brunswick and your request of September 4, 2012, under New Brunswick's Right to Information and Protection of Privacy Act (the "Act"). In summary, you have requested "documents detailing the salary and expenses of Dr. Eddy Campbell, the president of UNB, for the last 12 months" including, a "detailed breakdown of all expenses".

We are pleased to inform you that preparations are already underway to make this information publicly available on our UNB website. As it is our intention to release this information within 90 days of the date of your request we are writing to advise you under Section 33(2)(b) of the Act, which requires public bodies to inform applicants of information that will be made publically available. It is our intention that the information will be available on or before December 3, 2012. Additionally, following Section (33)(3)(a) we will also inform you when the information becomes publically available.

If you have any questions about this response you can direct those questions to me.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. McHardie:

Re: RTIPPA Request Salary and Expenses of Senior Staff, UNB

Thank you for your interest in the University of New Brunswick and your request of September 4, 2012, under New Brunswick's Right to Information and Protection of Privacy Act (the "Act"). In summary, you have requested "a list of salaries and expenses of all vice-presidents, assistant vice presidents, directors, executive directors, officers and deans or any other staff members who are considered to be senior staff at both the Saint John and Fredericton campuses for the last 12 months". Your request also asked for records on "any funds, such as salary or an expense, paid to the university's chancellor in the last 12 months".

We are pleased to inform you that preparations are already underway to make this information publicly available on our UNB website. As it is our intention to release this information within 90 days of the date of your request we are writing to advise you under Section 33(2)(b) of the Act, which requires public bodies to inform applicants of information that will be made publically available. It is our intention that the information will be available on or before December 3, 2012. Additionally, following Section (33)(3)(a) we will also inform you when the information becomes publically available.

If you have any questions about this response you can direct those questions to me.

Sincerely,

Monsieur McHardie,

La présente fait suite à votre demande d'information du 4 septembre 2012 relative à la Loi sur le droit à l'information et protection de la vie privée.

Dans votre demande, vous demandez « I request documents detailing the salary and expenses of Dr. Raymond Thériberge, the recteur of Université de Moncton, and Yvon Fontaine, the former recteur, for the last 12 months. This should include a detailed breakdown of all expenses. »

L'Université de Moncton mettra à la disposition du public les renseignements demandés, à l'exception de ceux protégés par des exceptions reconnues dans la Loi, dans un délai de 90 jours, soit au plus tard le 3 décembre 2012. En conséquence, conformément au paragraphe 33(1) et à l'alinéa 33(2)b) de la Loi, nous ne procéderons pas immédiatement à la diffusion de ces informations. Toutefois, nous nous ferons un devoir de vous aviser dès la diffusion des informations conformément à l'alinéa 33(3)a).

À titre d'information, les articles pertinents de la Loi sont les suivants :

- 33(1) Pour les fins du présent article, la publication comprend la publication en format électronique.
- 33(2) Le responsable d'un organisme public peut refuser de communiquer à l'auteur de la demande des renseignements : [...]
- b) s'il a des motifs raisonnables de croire qu'ils seront publiés dans les quatre-vingt-dix jours suivant la réception de la demande.

Dear Mr. McHardie:

I am responding to your request of September 4, 2012, under New Brunswick's Right to Information and Protection of Privacy Act (the "Act") which you addressed to our President and in which you requested "a list of salaries and expenses of all vice-presidents, assistant vice presidents, directors, executive directors, officers and deans or any other staff members who are considered to be senior staff for the last 12 months", which request included a request for information on "any funds, such as salary or an expense, paid to the university's chancellor in the last 12 months".

Please be advised that under section 6(1) of the Act our President has delegated to me all of his duties or powers under the Act with the exception of the power to delegate.

It is our intention to release information about the requested salaries and expenses within 90 days after your request, that is, on or before December 3, 2012, although we will not release information that is excepted from disclosure under Division B or Division C of Part 1 of the Act. As a result, and in accordance with section 33(2)(b) of the Act, we will not disclose that information at this time. However, we will notify you when the information is released.

If you have any questions about this response you can direct those questions to me.

Please be advised that you have the right to file a complaint with the Commissioner about this response or to refer the matter to a judge of The Court of Queen's Bench of New Brunswick for review.

Sincerely,

David Stewart
Vice-President Administration
